THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. A VP heavy tank regiment was being organized in Erfurt-Steiger during the period from 25 July through 16 August 1952. The regiment was formed from personnel of Volkspolizei Dienststellen (VPDs) Leipzig I and II, Meiningen and other units. Its first commanding officer was VP Oberrat Peter (fnu) who was replaced by VP Oberrat Brandis (fnu). On 16 August, the regiment was moved to the Eggesin area where it was quartered in a tent camp consisting of 45 large tents, erected in a clearing in the woods between Eggesin and Torgelow. The headquarters of the unit was established in a farm yard in the vicinity.¹
2. The regiment was organized into: a headquarters, a headquarters company, a technical company and an AAA company; a submachine gun rifle battalion consisting of a headquarters platoon and 4 companies; 2 tank battalions with a headquarters platoon, a technical platoon and 4 companies to each battalion; and an SP gun battalion consisting of 3 batteries. In early September, the regiment had an actual strength of 210 officers and 740 EN. No information was available on its authorized strength. No tanks were observed with the unit prior to mid-August 1952. However, [] 2. [] it was to be equipped with T-34/85 tanks. A BMW sedan and two Porsche Diesel trucks were the only motor vehicles available. The unit was equipped with 11 field kitchens which had been recently manufactured in East Germany.²
3. A total of 26 officers was assigned to the regimental headquarters. [] names of the following officers:

VP Oberrat Brandis (fnu)	Commanding officer, an ex-tank officer.
VP Rat Herbert Weber	PK officer, an ex-tank officer.
